In the Center of it All—and Growing!

Centrally located in the heart of West Virginia, Bridgeport is a hub for meetings, conferences, youth sports, shopping and dining. With easy access from Interstate 79 and Route 50, Bridgeport is a convenient drive from almost any location in West Virginia.

The name Bridgeport was born out of a cartographers mistake. Settled in the mid-1700s by early fur traders who came west over the Allegheny Mountains, Bridgeport was originally named Bridge Fort in reference to a bridge over Simpson's creek that connected local forts. However, due to the mapmaker's mis-spelling, the town became Bridgeport.

Much of the new development in Bridgeport over the last several years has happened at Charles Pointe. Charles Pointe is a $1.4 billion state-of-the-art mixed use community spanning over 1,700 acres along the I-79 high tech corridor. It is a combination of commercial, residential and recreational opportunities in one community, Highlighted by the Bridgeport Conference, the area features hotels, restaurants, retail, office space and recreation venues all in close proximity to each other.

Bridgeport is also home of a stellar parks and recreation program which runs a pool, multiple parks, public lakes, walking trails, and much more.

It is easy to drive to Bridgeport, but that is not the only way to get here. The North Central West Virginia Airport (CKB) is located in Bridgeport. The airport is currently served by two commercial airlines; Allegiant and United Express. Allegiant offers less than daily service to Orlando/Sanford, FL and Myrtle Beach, SC while United Express offers global connectivity through their hubs of Chicago O'Hare and Washington Dulles.

Throughout all of its growth, the residents of Bridgeport have maintained the small community atmosphere. The community is very family-oriented and members work together to provide advantages to all. From fairs and festivals to the Bridgeport Farmers Market, Bridgeport has something for everyone.

Get Outdoors

There are plenty of things to enjoy during your stay. Several nearby local and state parks offer opportunity to explore fitness trails, hiking trails, swimming and cycling or simply pack a picnic and enjoy some time outside.

Make sure you bring your clubs when you visit greater Bridgeport. With several area golf courses, including the Pete Dye Golf Club, you can play golf on some of the best courses West Virginia has to offer. The Pete Dye Golf Club has been rated the best course in West Virginia and one of the 100 best in America.

If you are an outdoorsman, you must start your West Virginia outdoor adventure at McFly Outfitters. This unique shopping destination is committed to getting you ready for a world-class experience in the mountain state.

Deegan & Hinkle Lakes Park are city-owned lakes are the perfect family destinations for picnics and outdoor fun. Both lakes are fully stocked for great fishing.

Located in the heart of the city, Bridgeport City Park has two miles of walking trails, baseball and soccer fields, play areas, basketball courts and even an archery range.

If you love bridges, take a walk across the Simpson Creek Covered Bridge, one of 17 covered bridges in the state of West Virginia.

The Bowstring Bridge, which is on the National Register of Historic Places, was built in 1924 and currently acts as a walkway between two recreational areas.

For hours of family fun, you can't beat Bridgeport City Pool. With areas for kids of all ages, it's the best place to beat the summer heat.

Watters Smith Memorial State Park is a 532-acre historical park that features a restoration and interpretive area and various recreational activities including hiking and horseback riding.

Golf Courses

The Pete Dye Golf Club, rated as one of the best golf courses in West Virginia. This private club is nationally recognized and offers unsurpassed services and truly memorable experiences for members and guests.

The private 18-hole Bridgeport Country Club features 6,208 yards of golf experience with the challenging slope rating of 124. The club also includes an extensive practicing range, chipping green and two putting greens.

Bel Meadow Country Club is a challenging public 18-hole course designed by Robert Trent Jones. The lush landscape is dotted with plenty of sand traps and water obstacles.

The public par-72 18-hole Tygart Lake Golf Course has Bermuda grass fairways, bent grass greens, more than 20 sand bunkers and lots of water.

Enjoy a picturesque golf outing at Stonewall Resort, which features an 18-hole Arnold Palmer-designed championship golf course. It has been named one of America's "Best New Courses" by both Golf Digest and Golf Magazine.

Built for Kids

Bridgeport is also a huge player in the youth sports market. The marque sports facility in the region is the Bridgeport Recreation Complex which features four state of the art baseball/softball fields, soccer, lacrosse and basketball courts.

The new Bridgeport Indoor Recreation Complex project is underway and when complete will make Bridgeport the sports destination for all seasons. The $50 million, multi-use facility is planned for a site near the city's current recreation complex and is scheduled to be open by Fall of 2020. The complex will house 6 volleyball courts, 6 basketball courts, indoor turf field, running track, and fitness center. In addition, the center will include a natatorium with a competition swimming pool and community swimming pool.

Bridgeport Recreation Complex is the perfect place for tournaments or games at any level. It's a beautiful facility that's conveniently located in the heart of the Mid-Atlantic Region.

Bridgeport's Bark Park is located between Hinkle & Deegan Lakes off of Rt. 58. Dogs are allowed to run off-leash inside the park.

Lion's Point Park features a gazebo, park benches, picnic tables, fishing and a parking area.

Compton Park features a five station fitness trail, lighted basketball court, Little Tykes play structure, picnic shelter with grills, a parking area, and a multi-purpose court.

Nearby Attractions

Located in Weston, West Virginia, Lambert's Vintage Wines was constructed from hand-cut stones gathered from various parts of the state. The winery includes a racking room, cooling room, and tasting room.

The atmosphere at Heston Farm Winery is as enjoyable as its wines. Functional, rustic works of art create the most distinctive public and private tasting rooms in the area.

For a bit of natural beauty, take a stroll along one of Audra State Park's many fine hiking trails. The park is known for its scenic beauty and is located along small rapids and cascades of the Middle Fork River.

Valley Falls State Park, located just miles from I-79, gets its name from the magnificent waterfalls that run through it. This beautiful park includes over 1,000 acres of land with more than 10 miles of biking and hiking trails.

The famous Stonewall Jackson State Park includes a top-notch resort, with fine dining and spa services. Here you can take in the breathtaking mountain, lake and golf course views while enjoying the hiking, biking, golfing, hunting and boating available to park guests.

Annual Events

Don't miss these local happenings.

ALL YEAR LONG

Bridgeport Farmers Market

If you love fresh fruit and vegetables, the Bridgeport Farmers Market is open every Sunday from mid-May thru mid-October, 10am to 2pm. The Market is open rain or shine. The Market is located in the Charles Pointe Development off I-79, at exit 124. The Winter Market is open the 2nd Sunday of each month from November to April, 11am to 2pm, inside the Bridgeport Conference Center.

LATE MAY/EARLY JUNE

Summer Kickoff and Food Truck Festival

The city's own official launch to the summer season. Sponsored and organized by the Associated Businesses of Bridgeport, the event features live music, trivia and interactive games, caricatures, a giant sandbox, car show and other seasonal attractions. Attendees mingle along Main Street, stopping for refreshments at one of several participating food trucks or local eateries which offer summertime specials and outdoor seating.

JUNE

The Derek Hotsinpiller Fallen Stars 5K

Both avid runners and leisure walkers participate in the event, which raises money for the Jim and Derek Hotsinpiller Memorial Scholarship Fund, named for a former Bridgeport police officer and his U.S. deputy marshal son who lost his life in the line of duty. The community supports and embraces the annual 5K which also features music, games, a kids' sprint and awards ceremony. It is held each year on an early-June Saturday to coincide with Derek Hotsinpiller's birthday and follows the very course he used to run.

DECEMBER

Light Up Night

This event marks the annual lighting of Bridgeport's Christmas tree. Main Street closes during this joyous event allowing local shops to give out hot chocolate and seasonal snacks. Local choirs and bands entertain the crowds, which grow every year. bridgeportbenedumfestival.com
